

The denture sunflower

1. If you see the denture sunflower at a patient's bedside, please try to be extra vigilant when clearing up after meals.
2. Patients occasionally wrap their dentures in tissue and leave them on the bedside / dinner tray. These can be accidentally swept away as rubbish.
3. Losing a denture is highly distressing for a patient and it affects their dignity and ability to eat and drink.