

Patient denture care

We advise patients not to leave their denture wrapped in tissue or keep them in their pockets after taking them out to eat or sleep...

...Instead, to ensure their dentures are kept safe, keep them in a named, lidded denture pot at the patients bedside.