

Fruit and vegetables are great and an important part of a healthy diet. These can be eaten throughout the day

Everything else should be eaten or drunk as part of a main meal

