

Figure 13: Aged-standardised mortality rate from lung cancer, all ages for Bury and its statistical neighbours per 100,000 population (Mortality Profile, 2021)

| Local Authority | Age-standardised rate of mortality from lung cancer in persons of all ages per 100,000 population |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Bury            | 74                                                                                                |
| Medway          | 66                                                                                                |
| Oldham          | 64                                                                                                |
| Swindon         | 64                                                                                                |
| Doncaster       | 64                                                                                                |
| Bolton          | 63                                                                                                |
| Rochdale        | 61                                                                                                |
| St. Helens      | 60                                                                                                |
| Wigan           | 58                                                                                                |
| Kirklees        | 57                                                                                                |
| Calderdale      | 56                                                                                                |
| Rotherham       | 53                                                                                                |
| Bedford         | 45                                                                                                |
| Derby           | 44                                                                                                |
| Dudley          | 43                                                                                                |
| Stockport       | 42                                                                                                |

Created with Datawrapper