Quality of Life Tool

This is a low level wellbeing assessment tool. This prevention tool, enables an individual or a professional supporting an individual to answer a few questions in regards to that person and their wellbeing.

Dependent on the answers selected, the system will generate a simple wellbeing plan which outlines services from the Bury Directory which matches the needs identified throughout the questions asked.

In its simplest sense this enables individuals to help themselves, manage health conditions or wellbeing issues by linking into community based services therefore directing residents away from the GPs and other NHS Acute providers. This empowers individuals and puts them back in the 'driving seat' of self-managing their own care and needs, recognising they are the expert in their own health and wellbeing.

NHS & Wellbeing

The NHS & Wellbeing Channel helps users to find information about conditions, treatments and healthy living as well as obtain relevant medical assistance to accommodate needs.

When you go into the channel you will find the following tools:
