

Oral Health Training for Early Years Practitioners

This evidence based learning tool has been designed to support and enable Early Years practitioners. The aim is to promote good oral health behaviours within their every day practice and encourage families to do the same.

This resource is free to use and accessible to all settings across the North West of England.

Please visit the website below to access this valuable online training and further resources.

<https://www.gmthub.co.uk/dentistry/workforce/childrens-oral-health/training-for-early-years-practitioners>

